located on Conway Rd. Caylee's nanny, Zenaïda Fernandes-Sanchez, has watched her for the past year and a half, to two years. Zenaïda is twenty-five years old, and is from New York. She is roughly 5 foot 7 inches tall, 140 pounds. She has dark brown, curly hair, and brown eyes. Zenaïda's birthday is in September. I met Zenaïda, through a mutual friend, Jeffrey Michael Hopkins. She had watched his son, Zachary Hopkins, for about 6 months, to a year. I met Zenaïda in 2004, around Christmas. On the date listed above, June 9, 2008, after dropping Caylee off at Zenaïda's apartment, I proceeded to head to my place of employment, Universal Studios Orlando. I have worked at Universal for over 4 years, since June of 2004. I left work around 5pm, and went back to the apartment to pick-up my daughter. However, after reaching the apartment I realized that neither Zenaïda, Caylee, or either of her two roommates were home. I have briefly met Raquel Farrell, and Jennifer Rosa, on various occasions. After calling Zenaïda, to see where she and Caylee were, and when they were coming home, I waited outside of the apartment. I had called Zenaïda earlier that morning, prior to bringing Caylee over for the afternoon. When I called her that afternoon, her phone was no longer in service. Two hours passed, and around 7pm, I left the apartment, and headed to familiar places that Zenaida would go with Caylee. One of Caylee's favorite places is Jay Blanchard park. I spent the rest of that evening, pacing and worrying, at one of the few places I felt "at home", my boyfriend Anthony Lazzaro's apartment. For the past four weeks, since Caylee's disappearance, I have stayed at Anthony's apartment, in Sutton Place. I have spent everyday, since Monday, June 9, 2008, looking for my daughter. I have lied and stolen from friends and family, to do whatever I could by any means to find my daughter. I avoided calling the police, or even notifying my own family, out of fear. I have been, and still am, afraid of what has, or may happen to Caylee. I have ~~not~~ not had any contact with Zenaida since Thursday, June 12, 2008. I received a quick call from Zenaida. Not once have I been able to ask her for my daughter, or gain any information on where I can find her. Everyday I have gone to malls, parks, any place I could remember Zenaida taking Caylee. I have gone out, and tried to find any information about Caylee, or Zenaida, whether by going to a popular bar, or restaurant. I have contacted Jeff Hopkins on several occasions, to see if he had heard from, or seen Zenaida. Jeff currently lives in Jacksonville, Florida. On Tuesday, July 15, 2008, around 12pm, I received a phone call from my daughter, Caylee.

Today was the first day I have heard her voice in over 4 weeks. I'm afraid of ~~and~~ what Caylee is going through. After 31 days, I know that the only thing that matters is getting my daughter back. With many and all attempts to contact Zenaida, and within the one short conversation, on June 12, 2008, I was never able to check in the status or well-being of my daughter. Zenaida never made an attempt to explain why Caylee is no longer in Orlando, or if she is ever going to bring her home.
