

Growing suspicions against the parents of Madeleine

The Declaration of a new protagonist in the desperate search for the British small-four years, further complicates the situation of the McCanns. What said the hotel manager

The Director of technical services of the resort Ocean Club, Silvia Batista, said that the night that Madeleine disappeared, she in person offered child care service "because the hotel is responsible for the children of customers, but they rejected it".

Madeleine was last seen last May 3 when he slept next to his brothers in a rented room in a hotel in Praia da Luz, in southern Portugal.

Asks them to the parents of the little by having left alone in that room the children to go out to eat with some friends.

According to the Director of housing, "every month are records of theft in the place, so it is advisable to a nanny service", but even knowing this, the parents of Maddie did not accept it.

Batista said in an interview given to the portal Globo.com hotel is working from the very beginning with the police to find the small. The Director added that the room used by the McCann family was the first two months closed, then it was open for 15 days, but returned to be closed again.

Also the Director of the resort said that the place it has "much curious, but do not alter the routine of the place".

"We did not have the blame in the disappearance of the small, could not say who was the fault, but our not", said the Director and noted that "the parents of the girl that night were very unconcerned", reason why would have not asked the Babysitting service.

Source: infobae.com/2007/08/15/331952-crecen-las-sospechas-contra-los-padres-madeleine/